Accident Involving a Pedestrian

On October 12, 2021 at approximately 3:30 PM, Manchester Police responded to the intersection of Concord St and Chestnut St for a report of an accident involving a pedestrian.

Arriving officers located a 63 year old man with a head injury. He was taken to a local hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

Through the investigation, police learned that the pedestrian had been crossing Chestnut St when a Chevy Malibu traveling on Concord St took a left hand turn onto Chestnut. The pedestrian and car collided. The driver stayed on scene and was cooperative with police.

The accident is still under investigation and anyone with information is asked to call Manchester Police at 603-668-8711.
